

Lakin timeline of concern of CinC's Constitutional eligibility:

OCT/NOV/DEC 2008

- October was looking at volunteering to deploy with my old unit that was deploying to Iraq. Started to learn more about the issues and concerns. Stopped my efforts to volunteer to deploy.

JAN/FEB/MAR 2009

- Sought out opinions from supervisors, friends and family.
- Called Legal Assistance at Aberdeen Proving Grounds. They returned my call. I discussed with some staff member. He stated he needed to research a little and would call me back. I called at least 1-2x/per week for about 3 weeks with leaving messages on voice mail or not getting an answer.
- Proceeded to submit an Article 138 through my Company Commander against BHO. This was submitted at the end of March 2009.
- Received official reply 11 June 2009 from Company Commander. In conversing with him, he said I had the right to submit Congressional complaints.

APR

- 24 April submitted question to Sens Alexander and Corker, and Congressman Wamp.

MAY/JUNE/JUL 2009

- Sought further advice from friends.
- June Received email response from Senator Alexander's staffer. Conversated with Congressman Wamp's staffer (Steele) several times. Steele submitted complaint to Office of Military Legislative Affairs.

JUL 2009

- Change of jobs to work at the Pentagon

AUG/SEP/OCT/NOV

- Continued to dialogue with friends, leaders, supervisors regarding my concerns and seeking advice.

NOV 20, 2009

- Submitted Art. 138 against GEN Casey, Army Chief of Staff. Reply 11 DEC.
